

Tourism and Hospitality Management Division

Job Title: Full-time Lecturer of Tourism and Hospitality Management Division

We are seeking a highly qualified and motivated individual for a full-time faculty position under Tourism and Hospitality Management Division at Mahidol University International College.

The ideal candidate will be highly motivated, possessing the capability to instruct undergraduate and postgraduate-level courses while also demonstrating the initiative to establish and lead an independent research group and/or academic service project.

Qualifications:

Degree: Ph.D. in Tourism and Hospitality Management or related field

Research interest/Professional experience: technology adoption, data science, machine learning, and AI (Strong research and publication record, or professional portfolio is considered advantageous)

Skills: Excellent communication and teaching skills.

Responsibilities:

- To engage in teaching, research/creative work, and academic service as required by the Division and College.
- To develop course materials that align with courses' aims and objectives, program's learning outcomes, and other requirements.
- To work collaboratively with colleagues and participate activities at Division and College level.
- To contribute to the running of Programs and Division.
- To serve as academic advisor to students, advise projects, and support internship opportunities for students.

To apply for the position, please submit a comprehensive application package consisting of a cover letter, CV, and the contact details of three references. Kindly email your application to yanin.som@mahidol.ac.th